

THE CHINESE SIDE.

The Canton Viceroy's Remarks on Canton Riots.

European Murderers of Chinese Inadequately Punished or Not Punished at All—Gross Abuses of Chinese Hospitality by Foreigners

HONG KONG, Oct. 24.—Viceroy Chang Shu, of Canton, states that the desire of all Chinese officials is to make the relations of China with foreigners satisfactory and agreeable. When asked if he feared an outbreak, he said he would do all in his power to suppress one, but he was greatly hampered by the action taken in the case of the Honsan and Hankow murders. The first case was that of an English subject who killed a boy and wounded a man and woman. He was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment. The second case was that of a foreigner who killed a man and was removed beyond Chinese waters without trial. He referred to the case at Shanghai, on the occasion of the riot, September 10, when a Portuguese sailor on the English steamer Hankow drowned a Chinaman, and the English Consul refused to arrest him. The crowd was quiet until the steamer began to move from the wharf with the accused on board. Then, with a sense of the injustice of this course, they set fire to the wharf, and finally attacked the foreign concession, and burned and looted several buildings. He said that if the English Consul had made the arrest there would have been no riot. When asked what provision he had made to pay indemnities, he said he thought that he would ask for the mediation or assistance of the American Minister, who was expected to arrive in Canton soon. Owing to the excited feeling in Canton it is contemplated to establish the foreign office near the foreign concession, so as to transact consular business and prevent the necessity of passing through the city.
